

INTENSIVE ENGLISH DISCUSSIONS ON VARIOUS TOPICS ADVANCED LEVEL

This course is meant for LECTURERS, STAFF and PhD STUDENTS. It is FREE!

Time: Tuesdays 13:15 – 14:45

Place: Room LP 1128

Please contact Dr Lianne Barnard if you want to attend the course. Write to barnardlianne@gmail.com

Our classes are great fun, intellectually challenging and very flexible. You decide what you want to do and I prepare the lessons. You can talk as much as you want, listen, or ask difficult grammatical questions. Here are some of the many topics we have discussed over the years:

1. Ig Nobel awards (How cats communicate)
- 2. Hans Rosling's Magic Washing Machine
3. Public Speaking
4. The future tense in all its many guises
5. The many uses of sound in marketing
6. Should scientists run the country?
7. Factfulness
- 8. 2022's most used internet abbreviations for tweeting and texting
9. Have something done (silly grammar – still useful to know)
- 10. Millennials, Gen-X and the differences between generations
11. Charlie bit my finger
12. Dancing maths
13. Mathematicians invent new Einstein shape
14. Reporting verb patterns
15. Cat poems
- 16. Santa's secrets: Science weighs in

Please join us. Some students have been attending the class for many years.
